MOUNTAIN DAY

- - - I saw through leafy screens
Great granite terraces in sun and shadow,
Shelves one could rest a knee on getting up - - -
With depths behind him sheer a hundred feet;
Or turn and sit on and look out and down,
With little ferns in crevices at his elbow.

THE CLASS OF '54

TO THE . . . . . SENIORS

Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The pink of life, for which these years were spent:
Our lives were in their hands
Who said, "Return to the campus
By 7:30 or dark, whichever comes first."

Look not thou back but forward!
To jobs that pay good money,
To gay cafes, swirling formal gowns and sleek black cadillacs,
To grad school or the drumming beat
Of marching army feet.
Take them and try their worth: there are many days to be.

Look forward to the chime
Of wedding bells, to cozy home contentment,
To baby wails, to grocery bills, to plumbing that needs fixing,
To open country or crowded town apartments.
Time's wheel runs on, and we are racing with it.

Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The abundance of life that we have always planned:
Our lives are in our hands
Who say, "Enjoy yourself
And get the most from breathing!"

TO THE JUNIORS

If you can make one heap of all your learnings
And risk it on one year of major work
And being discouraged, start agoin with other yearnings,
And never complain nor go beserk;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can eat cheese dreams and keep your nurture
Or walk with grads - - - nor lose the friendly touch
If neither proficiency exams nor seniors essays can hurt you,
If all grades count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the almost tardy minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the campus and everything that's on it,
For we'll be gone - - - and YOU'LL be Seniors!

TO THE SOPHOMORES

If you can sleep—and not make sleep your master,
If you can take Humanities and science, and not make suicide your aim,
If you can meet with deans and teachers
And treat these two authorities just the same;
If you can bear to hear the chapel speakers
And still maintain your goal of fame,
Or watch the friends you gave your time to, married
And stop and have more fun with those who tarried
You'll be a Junior soon!

If you can keep your grades when all about you
Are flunking out and blaming it on tests,
If you can concentrate when friends too few
Are having fun or lengthy mental rests,
If you can stand in line and not be tired by waiting,

Another field goal! Another home run!

Onward to a swimming record!

All to the Seabury gym

Ran the young muscle-men.

"Signal, shift!

One, two three!" they cried.

Out to the tufted field

Bounded the sturdy players.

WAA BOARD

"Forword, foll, bounce, bounce, bounce!"
Was there a girl dismayed?
There on the floor she sprawled
Some one had blundered.
Theirs not to make reply,
Theirs not to reason why,
Theirs but to do or die.
Into the WOODS-PENN gym
Flocked all the athletes (or otherwise).

A woman's A woman for A' That

When I was one-and-twenty . . . . .
